MANSDORFER FAMILY REUNION

The Mansdorfer family reunion started on August 27, 1922 in Dunfee, Indiana as a birthday party for Henry Mansdorfer's 55th birthday. At this celebration the family decided to form an organization and hold a reunion every year, and they did until August of 1961..

The Mansdorfer family started in America when George Jacob Mansdorfer and two sisters arrived in New York on May 10, 1852. George Jacob and his sister, Julianna went to Reading, Pennsylvania, where both married. George Jacob married Hannah Questera and had a daughter, Johanna Katherine. Julianna married Frank Strebe. George Jacob left Reading with his daughter and came to Fort Wayne, Indiana. He obtained a divorce from Hanna in Bluffton, Indiana and married Lisetta Kline in 1865, they had nine children. Julianna and her husband Frank moved to Fort Wayne and stayed about a year before moving to DeKalb County.

Ernest Mansdorfer showed up in Noble County a few years later and had a family. His children also attended these reunions and he is buried in the St. John Lutheran Cemetery where George Jacob is buried. I think he is a brother but am not sure.

These reunion record books were found when William Irwin died. His wife Katherine Archer Irwin was the recording secretary at the reunions for many years.

BRIDE OF JANUARY 1—Miss Donetta Rhoads, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Rhoads of Dunfee, became the bride of Keith D. Noyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Noyer of Dunfee, in a ceremony read Saturday afternoon, January 1, in the Congregational Christian church in Dunfee. Rev. B. P. Miller read the vows against a background of evergreens and candles.

Miss Wilma Noyer, sister of the bridegroom, presented the musicale, her selections including "Intermezzo," "Perfect Day," "Simple Confession," "Viennese Refrain," "Valse Blue Poem" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of white ninon and lace. A band of orange blossoms held her fingertip length veil and white snapdragons and carnations formed her bouquet.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Maxine Noyer, attended as maid of honor in a gown of pink ninon and taffeta. She carried yellow jonquils and white carnations. Mildred Rhoads, sister of the bride, Joan Pequignot and Geraldine Noyer, cousins of the bride and bridegroom, ushered in gowns of blue taffeta and ninon. Their corsages were of pink carnations. Paul Oser, Jr., cousin of the bride, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black crepe with a corsage of deep rose and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a green crepe dress with a corsage of deep rose and white carnations.

A reception followed at the Rhoads home, where the refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bridal couple. A wedding supper was served later to members of the families and bridal party.

The bride was graduated from Jefferson Center high school and is employed at the Wayne Knitting mills. Mr. Noyer was graduated from the Arcola high school and is employed at the Fort Wayne Tool, Dye and Engineering company. They will make their home at 2710 Poinsetta drive.—Masterson photo.

Mildred D. Rhoads Becomes Bride of Marcus Waterman

The wedding of Miss Mildred Delores Rhoads and Marcus O. Waterman, took place Saturday at 2:30 p.m. in the First Christian Church at Dunfee.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart M. Rhoads, Rural Route 5, Fort Wayne, the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Waterman, of Rural Route 2, Columbia City.

The couple is employed in Fort Wayne, the bride by the Dreibelbiss Abstract Co., and the groom by the International Harvester Co.

The Rev. Battle Miller, assisted by the Rev. Welburn Smith, performed the ceremony following a half-hour recital by Miss Wilma Noyer, pianist, and Carl Brown, vocalist.

The bride wore a white gown of heavy bridal satin with a molded bodice fashioned with a nylon net yoke and lace bertha. The full skirt was finished with a chapel train. A beaded tiara held her veil of imported illusion and she carried white roses centered with an orchid. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Louise Putman attended the bride as maid of honor in a green taffeta gown and Mrs. Keith Noyer, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid in a yellow taffeta gown. Each carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Jacqueline Worrick, flower girl, wore a pink, lace-trimmed long dress and carried pink carnations.

Serving the groom as best man was Keith Noyer, while Delmar Mansdorfer and Gordon Jones ushered. Ronnie Noyer was ring bearer.

An informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 150 guests after the wedding. Mrs. Paul Oser, Jr., Mrs. LaVerne Schrader and Mrs. Lester Worrick served.

When the bride and groom return from their wedding trip south, they will make their home in Dunfee.

No further business new or old to discuss a motion was made and carried for meeting to be adjourned.

all members wish to thank Charles Strebe for his kindness for bringing along his records and entertaing us before meeting and his recorder of which he made a recording of the meeting, and then played it back to us so we could hear how it was conducted.

We are all sorry to have one of our perfect attendance members not to be with us to-day, and hope she will be able to be with us again in 1954. She is our oldest member and attended 31 reunions before a miss, she is Mrs. Mary Mansdorfer and we all send her our best regards.

We are proud to mention that we still have two with a perfect attendance record, attending all 32 reunions without a miss Miss Esther Mansdorfer and Mrs. Katherin Irwin.

A very enjoyable day was had by all and weather was wonderful, with hopes all here to-day will be able to come back again next year and some not able to come to-day will be with us in 1954.

Nyla Mayers Marries In Morning Service

A gown fashioned of Chantilly lace and silk net was worn by Miss Nyla Jean Mayers today when she exchanged wedding vows with Dean Mansdorfer in an 11 a.m. ceremony performed by the Rev. Stanley Manoski. The St. Joseph Catholic Church was the scene of the rites.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement E. Mayers, 1153 Harmar St., are parents of the bride and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mansdorfer, R. R. 6, Illinois Road.

Attendants in Aqua

The fitted bodice of the bride's gown was fashioned with short sleeves and a softly draped V-neckline. She wore elbow-length mitts. Her floor-length skirt of lace ended in a deep flounce of net forming a slight train. A crown-like headpiece of lace corresponding to her gown studded with pearls and sequins held her tiered three-quarter-length veil. She carried a bouquet of orchids with shattered carnation edging and stephanotis.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Carol Mayers, who wore a gown of aquamarine crystalet styled in an empire silhouette with a shirred bodice topped with an Eton jacket. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Jefferies and Miss Marilyn Mayers, and junior bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Mayers, all sisters of the bride, wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor. Wearing a dress in the same tone was Miss Vickie Coverdale, flower girl, cousin of the bride.

All attendants wore crownless hats of matching horsehair to complete their outfits and carried yellow carnations.

Robert Johnson, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Gary Ash and Donald Mayers, brother of the bride.

Mothers Wore Orchids

The wedding breakfast was at the Hobby Ranch House at 1 p.m. and the reception will be at the school hall of St. Joseph Catholic Church. Serving will be Mrs. Marvin Gunkle, Mrs. Gerald Crawford, Miss Violet Bobay, Miss Nancy Newnam, Miss Margaret Haley and Miss Valerie Mayers, sister of the bride.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of pidgeon gray lace over soft pink with accessories of pink tones and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheath dress in a heavy thread mauve lace and an orchid corsage.

For her wedding trip to Florida the bride will change to a mauve dress with complementary accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mansdorfer Reunion

38th annual Reunion, August, 30, 1959.

The 38th annual reunion of the Mansdorfer family was held in the Grange Hall, located a mile south of Garrett on August. 30, 1959 with fifty-~~three~~ (50) members and one (1) vistor present.

A very delicious dinner was served at noon and enjoyed by all present.

Business meeting called to order by President Ralph Mansdorfer.

The minutes of last years meeting read and accepted.

Births, marriages and deaths read

Motion made to retain same officers for another year but president Ralph Mansdorfer declined to accept.

A motion made and carried to elect William Carr as president, Bill Irwin vice president, Charles Mansdorfer, honorary vice president, Hobart Rhoads, treasurer, Katherine Irwin, recording secretary.

An invitation extended to hold reunion in 1960 at home of Esther & Ezra Metts at Hudson Michigan but by vote not accepted.

a motion made and seconded to hold 1960 reunion again in Grange Hall on the regular Sunday August 28, 1960, if available, as it is surely a a very nice place for our reunions to be held.

Edna & William Carr said they would again take care of Coffee.

Ruth & May McDonald said they would again take care of pop and ice cream.

Bill Hartubise entertained us with movies, some of pictures were from former reunions that he had taken.

Hobart Rhoads reported Charles Mansdorfer had suffered a slight stroke.

Dorothy Melchi reported her mother Ruth Hull, now in Edith Nursing Home in Angola and would like to see or hear from any of the members.

Letters read from Eva Strebe informing us her husband John in hospital very sick and from Beatrice (Case) Bent about her mother in hospital in Wabash very sick and from Myrtle Hull sending their regards to all.

Mrs. Sophia Kiefer Oldest member present to-day.

A motion made and seconded to give William Carr five ($5) dollars to give to treasurer of Grange Hall for use of building.

A collection taken amounting to $16.40 expenses $23.80, making a deficit of $7.40 which was taken from treasury account.

Again to-day the two (2) members that have never missed a reunion are present, attending 38 reunions without a miss, Esther Mansdorfer and Katherine Irwin.

No further business new or old to discuss, a motion made and seconded for meeting to adjourn.

Everyone present had a very enjoyable day and hope all here to-day will be present at our gathering in 1960 and bring another member or guest along with them.

Earl Ellsworth Howard

Funeral services for Earl Ellsworth Howard, 67, 3225 Eastbrook Drive, will be at 10 a.m. Monday in the D. O. McComb & Sons Funeral Home, the Rev. Frank L. Engle officiating. Burial will be in Lindenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Howard died at 9:25 p.m. Friday in the St. Joseph Hospital where he had been a patient since July 2.

A native and a lifelong resident of Fort Wayne, he retired from the Bowser Company a few years ago after 25 years of service. He was a member of the First EUB Church, the Masonic Lodge at Hamilton, and the Scottish Rite here. At the time of his death he was the sescretary of the Hamilton Conservation Club.

Surviving are the wife, Edith; a son, Paul E., Swanton, O.; a daughter, Mrs. Richard H. Korn, Fort Wayne; a brother, Claude Howard, Fort Wayne; two sisters, Mrs. Horace Smith, Fort Wayne, and Miss Marguerite Howard, Denver, Col.; 13 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. A son Earl Jr. was killed in a motorcycle accident on July 4.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. today.

July 4, 1960.

Man, Woman Companion Die in Motorcycle Crash

Two traffic deaths Monday afternoon raised Fort Wayne's toll to 11 for the year and marred what otherwise was considered by law officers as a "fairly peaceful" Fourth.

Earl L. Howard, 40, 1238 Swinney Ave., a former policeman and sheriff's deputy, and a companion, Mrs. Joyce G. O'Barr, 26, 1302 Swinney Ave., were killed at 12:29 p.m. when their motorcycle went out control at high speed in the 2700 block of Taylor St.

Traffic Sgt. James Birkenbeul said Howard's cycle was eastbound on Taylor traveling at a high rate of speed. It went out of control, bounded over the curb and tossed Howard and his passenger high in the air.

Mrs. O'Barr died of a skull fracture, and Howard, who suffered a broken neck, was dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Others investigating the accident were Dr. Edgar N. Mendenhall, county coroner, and Motor Patrolmen Gene LaFabour and Martin Bender.

Howard was a former police motorcycle officer and traffic investigator.

He was a lifelong resident of Fort Wayne and had served with the U.S. Army prior to World War II. During World War II he was a Navy Seabee. He was last employed as a bartender at Tommy's Tavern, and was a member of Home Lodge No. 342, F&AM.

Surviving are three sons, Skip, Kyle and Edward, all of Fort Wayne; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Howard, Fort Wayne; a sister, Mrs. Richard Korn, Fort Wayne, and a brother, Paul E., Swanton, Ohio.

The body is at the Tom Mungovan Funeral Home.

Mrs. O'Barr, a native of Trusville, Ala., had lived here for eight years.

She is survived by her husband, Ralph; a daughter, Brenda JoAnn, and two sons, Jack and Ralph Jr., all at home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Goodwin, Trusville, and a brother, Jerome Goodwin, also of Trusville.

The body was taken to the C. M. Sloan & Sons Funeral Home.

Miss Linda Lou Hazelwood Marries in Cathedral Rite

Miss Linda Lou Hazelwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Hazlewood, 403 Greenlawn Ave., became the bride of Eugene Lynn Bubb at 9 a.m. today at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Durkin officiating.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bubb, 5510 Illinois Road.

A white taffeta and lace gown was selected by the bride. Its V shaped neckline and tiers of net paneling were delicately embroidered. A half crown of seed pearls and irridescents held the veil of illusion. White carnations and pink pompons arranged in a nosegay bouquet were carried by the bride.

A blue silk organza over taffeta gown was worn by Mrs. James Fenker, matron of honor. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white pompons.

Bridesmaids, Miss JoAnne Omo and Miss Dixie Bubb wore silk organza over taffeta. Their flowers were lavender and pink pompons.

James Fenker was best man and Jerry Bubb and Ronald Pequignot served as ushers.

A brown and gold nylon print dress was worn by Mrs. Hazelwood. Mrs. Bubb, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue chiffon over blue print dress. The two mothers had corsages of white and pink roses respectively.

A reception will be held at 8 p.m. at the Precious Blood School. Servers will include Mrs. Judy Auld, and Misses Rita Hazlewood Judy Miller, Rosina Hinen and Karen Omo.

The bridal couple will reside at 321 Elmer Ave.
